Are you passionate about human rights? Keen to see more young people engage in social change? Excited about building and leading the next generation of change makers?

The Amnesty International Australia's Schools Network Outreach Team, fondly know as SNOTs, works to help empower Australian students and teachers to take action for human rights and encourage a deeper understanding of human rights issues and social change on a national and international level.

Key Responsibilities

Schools Outreach Teams support student activism through diverse events, programs and leadership opportunities and encourage students to be the change they wish to see in the world. All SNOT team members support schools by:

- School Visits - delivering presentations and workshops about Amnesty International, human rights and campaigns.
- School Group Support - helping students and teachers start and build Amnesty Action Groups
- Resources for Students and Schools - providing schools/students/groups with nationally generated Amnesty campaign information, resources and materials.

Key relationships

Internal:

- Community Organiser & Activism Support Coordinator in Adelaide
- National Youth Coordinator National
- Regional Schools Network Outreach Coordinators

External:

- Young people within our community; and

- School Teachers in the region

This position is ideal for someone with:

- An interest or background in education
- Passion for human rights
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- An ability to work well with people of all ages
- Strong leadership skills and ability to inspire and motivate others
