

FINDING A NEW HOME

FOR REFUGEES AND ASYLUM SEEKERS

Have a vision of a world where people seeking safety can find welcome and a place to rebuild their lives?

Amnesty works tirelessly to advocate for refugees and asylum seekers, including championing solutions to increase our humanitarian intake, end offshore detention and bring refugees to safety.

In Australia we're mobilising towns and communities in advocating for a fairer community sponsorship program for refugees. A fairer sponsorship program would allow everyday Australians and small businesses to support refugees in coming to Australia and settling into the community.

You can join other Amnesty supporters in encouraging our government to create fairer community sponsorship.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

– defending human rights

WHO WE ARE

We are an independent, global movement of more than 7 million people who campaign for human rights for everyone.

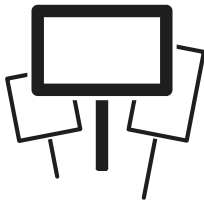

Amnesty doesn't accept funding from governments or political organisations for our campaigning and advocacy work. This financial independence means we're free to campaign with objectivity and impartiality and to defend human rights worldwide.

WHAT WE DO

When human rights are violated, we search out the facts, expose what is happening and mobilise people to pressure governments and others to stop the violations.

We bring torturers to justice, change oppressive laws and free people jailed for voicing their opinion. In Australia we work to end the indefinite detention of refugees and people seeking asylum, and work alongside Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to end injustice and inequality.
