

Prime Minister Imran Khan

Your Excellency,

I urge you to release Idris Khattak, Pakistan's expert on enforced disappearances, who has himself been subjected to enforced disappearance.

If there is credible and admissible evidence that he has committed an internationally recognized crime, then please try him promptly and fairly in a civilian ordinary court, without recourse to the death penalty.

If not, release him immediately and unconditionally. His daughters have not seen Idris since he was abducted in November 2019. They don't know where he is or whether he can take his medication. They just want their father back home safe with them.

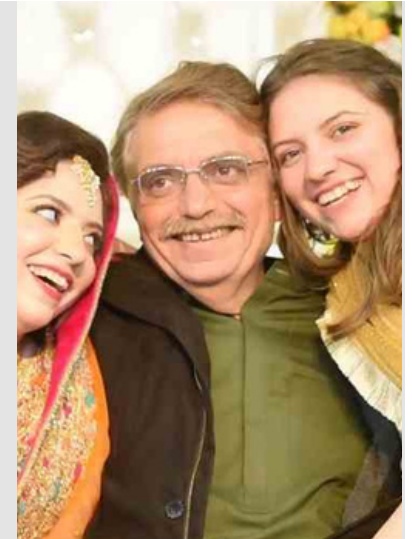

You once made a promise to make enforced disappearance a crime under national law. Now is your chance to honour that pledge.

WHERE IS IDRIS KHATTAK?

Talia is desperately searching for her father. A human rights researcher, he disappeared in Pakistan in November 2019. If convicted, he could face a death sentence.

Backed by Amnesty International, and people like you, public pressure worked. In June 2020, Pakistan authorities did something very rare - admitting that Idris was in their custody.

Join Talia and call on Pakistan authorities to release Idris Khattak.
