

MEDIA CONSENT FORM

Amnesty International Australia is part of a global movement challenging injustice. To do this, we mobilise people, campaign, conduct research and raise money for our work. We are promoting a culture where human rights are embraced, valued and protected. We use images of individuals in a number of our campaign materials, both online and in hard copy. To this end we require your written permission for Amnesty International to use your / your child's photographic / filmed image in association with material being compiled to promote Amnesty International's work.

Photographer: _____

I give my unconditional permission to the Photographer and Amnesty International to use my / my child's photographic / filmed image for the purposes of promoting and publicising Amnesty International and Amnesty International Australia's work in promoting human rights.
