

Candidate	Statement
Sara Abdelmawoud 	I am Sara Abdelmawoud, a current Activism Leadership Committee (ALC) member, and I am nominating myself to continue contributing to this role. I joined Amnesty two years ago, and since then my work has focused on supporting and advocating for communities affected by war, human rights violations, and injustice, particularly in relation to refugee rights and Palestine. I have led and co-led several campaigns, including Hands Off Palestine and 7 Days 7 Actions for Refugee Week, and have helped organise key actions such as the Palm Sunday Rally and Refugee Week community stalls. My activism centres on community outreach and public education. I bring this to life through initiatives such as futsal tournaments, Act for Rights gatherings, and the development of educational modules to raise awareness about refugee rights. Beyond campaigning, I write opinion pieces for media outlets to share ideas, raise awareness and reach wider audiences and communities. I look forward to educating and mobilising more people in support of our campaigns.
Jay Moran	As an Amnesty member for over 10 years, I have worked on a range of campaigns from refugee rights to Gaza. I'm currently Co-President of Amnesty ACT/SNSW, and deeply committed to human rights. In my professional life, I work as a lobbyist/government relations professional in the public health space, seeking to address health equity issues. I'm passionate about human rights, and building campaigns for lasting impact!